

Bridge At Emerald Bay Will Provide Less Costly Route

Two alternate routings for the future four-lane expressway at Emerald Bay will be presented by the division of highways at the public meeting called for 10 a. m. September 29 at the Lake Side Theater on U. S. 50, Alan S. Hart, district engineer, announced.

The meeting has been called in keeping with the California Highway Commission's standing policy of informing the public of proposed highway improvements, and to give all persons the opportunity of playing their part in the location of a new route.

The two alternate routes to be presented at the meeting are: Alternate A would follow an entirely new alignment which would depart from the existing road near Tallac Creek, closely follow the shore line, and cross the mouth of Emerald Bay over a low-level bridge. From there it would continue into Bliss State Park—over either an earth embankment or an elevated roadway structure (viaduct)—climb the west cliff of the lake, pass through a saddle in the ridge within the park, and rejoin the existing highway one-half mile north of the park boundary. Distance would be 5.7 miles.

Alternate B also begins near Tallac Creek, however, it would generally follow the present road

Busy Future Looms For Squaw Arena

Bill Kerth, director of Blyth Arena, has big plans for future ice hockey and speed skating events in the huge ice rink at Squaw Valley. "We're going to step up our ice hockey program," said Kerth, who operates North Sacramento's Iceland, "and we would like to get some top speed skating events on the oval next to the arena."

With most of the events taking place in 1962, the first big hockey attraction will take place March 3 and 4 with two games being played between the United States national and Canadian national teams.

The contests will be held prior to the world hockey championships in Colorado Springs, Colo., in which the Americans and Canadians also will participate.

"We're also negotiating with the Russian team," he said, "and we hope to have them at Blyth the same weekend."

As an added attraction to the NCAA ski championships which will be staged at Squaw, the two top NCAA hockey teams will play each other on March 24.

"Beginning in April," Kerth said, "teams from the California Hockey association will play one weekend a month for four different months."

And in the next Far Western senior open hockey tournament there will be 12 teams participating. We've been contacting teams up north including Canada.

"As soon as the division of beaches and parks reactivates the speed skating oval, we'd like to hold the first outdoor speed skating championship ever held in California. It would be called the Pacific Coast Outdoor Speed Skating Championships."

LOCAL PATROLMAN INJURED IN MISHAP

Highway Patrol Officer Carroll Maynard was taken to the Tahoe Forest Hospital last Saturday afternoon for treatment of injuries suffered in a motorcycle accident near Tahoe City.

According to the report, Maynard was starting to pass a car when the driver held out her hand, apparently to make a left turn. Maynard swerved his motorcycle to avoid a collision, lost control and overturned. The woman later said she only wanted to question the officer and was signalling him to come along side. He suffered an injured elbow.

The Tahoe National Forest Service continues to wage an all-out campaign against even the smallest spark of fire in the forests, with devastating conflagrations being valiantly fought against great odds in many sections of California.

Truckee Property Owners Will Pay Tax Rate Of $6.86

The tax rate in the immediate Truckee district this year will be $6.86 per $100 assessed valuation, it has been announced by County Clerk and Auditor John T. Trauer.

This total includes the $2.20 basic county rate set by the board of supervisors at the September 1 meeting, which is 12 cents above the rate for the past fiscal year.

The local rate inside the Truckee fire and sanitary district includes the following:

Tahoe Truckee School District, $1.82; Tahoe Forest Hospital District, 16 cents; Truckee Tahoe Airport District, 20 cents; Truckee Fire District, 66 cents; Truckee Sanitary District, 60 cents; Sierra Junior College, 36 cents; Tahoe Truckee school bonds, 63 cents; Hospital District bonds, four cents and Sierra Junior College, 19 cents.

The Donner Summit Utility District rate was set at 50 cents and this means that a portion of that area will pay $6.10 per $100 assessed valuation, while the balance will pay $5.40 depending upon whether the property is inside the hospital and school districts.

CHECK WRITER GETS STATE PRISON TERM

Appearing before Judge E. T. Manwell of the Marysville Justice Court presiding for Superior Judge Vernon Stoll, Leslie Rose, 46, a short-time resident of Truckee was sentenced to state prison for forgery.

Rose who was here briefly, supposedly to organize an operating engineers' local union, passed a forged check against the Sacramento branch of the Bank of America on July 27 with the Tourist Club.

Taken before Judge Foster Wilson in the local court, he pleaded guilty and was held to appear in the higher court.

On the same superior court calendar, Richard W. Cooper of Truckee pleaded not guilty to two counts of issuing bogus checks.

He is also charged with five prior convictions for bad checks. In the latest case, he is charged with issuing two checks for $20 each in a Truckee tavern. A jury trial will be held October 5.

BORROWED LUMBER RETURNED BY BOYS

TAHOMA—A variation on the tree house theme was discovered by James Wilson of Tahoma who noticed some of the lumber he had piled for construction of a new house was beginning to disappear. He found that four boys 15 to 17 years of age had used the lumber to build on his property a shelter which was camouflaged with brush.

The boys, all from Concord, Contra Costa County, cut short their carefree vacation when their living quarters were discovered. Before they left they repiled Wilson's lumber.

Hubner and Michner of Denver was lowest of four bidders, according to officials at the Marysville district office.

The removal of necessary trees and brush will begin within a month or six weeks and is expected to be completed by June 15, 1962.

The job will extend east from near the junction with State Sign Route 20, about three miles west of Cisco Grove, to Hampshire Rocks. The construction contract for grading and paving of the four-lane divided freeway is expected to be advertised for bids early next year.

Traffic will not be affected by the clearing project.

Injuries Handicap Wolverine Squad

The Tahoe Truckee Wolverines, after completing the first week of season practice, have already taken on enough lumps to hinder play, Coach Ken Holback announced this week.

The possible season loss of Chris Felte and Bill Holley, both on the injury list and Joe Sheehan, potential hard-running fullback who sustained injury through an auto mishap, might put the Wolverines in serious condition for their opener September 16, Holback declared.

Felte, a returning letterman, suffered a low-back injury in pre-season drill. Holley, also a returnee, re-injured, a knee that plagued him through last year's play.

"Although I'm pleased with the fine pre-season turnout and the attitude of hustle, the boys are showing, we will be short-handed unless we pick up more candidates when classes convene," Holback said. "We still have equipment and welcome any interested players."

The squad has been going through extensive once-a-day workouts on conditioning and fundamentals and will start next week's workout on sharpening of offense and defensive maneuvers the coach said.

The Wolverines will meet Colfax on the home field on September 16 at 2 p. m.

Leo Todd Named Public Defender For This County

GRASS VALLEY—Leo J. Todd, Grass Valley attorney, who within the year resigned a position as deputy district attorney, Friday was appointed Nevada County's first public defender at $500 per month for part-time representation.

The new position will become effective October 1. Todd's application for the position was the only application received by the Nevada County Board of Supervisors.

District Attorney Harold Berlin by letter and personally informed the supervisors that he was withdrawing from private practice and would devote his full time to the office of district attorney. This will probably take a year and a half as the attorney completes the file of private legal business that he has on hand and by not accepting additional legal business.

Effective today he asked that the secretary of the district attorney's office, now on three-quarters time, be approved for full time employment by the county. This was accepted.

Petitions Signed For Local District

Petitions calling upon the board of supervisors to call an election for the formation of a recreation area embracing all of the fifth supervisorial district have been referred to County Clerk J. T. Trauer for certification and will receive further board action on September 20.

N. F. Dolley, manager of the Truckee Donner Chamber of Commerce, which is sponsoring the project, said more than 200 local residents signed the petitions.

While the principal aim for formation of the district is to acquire the beach property at the west end of Donner Lake, Dolley said a number of other projects may be developed later through the creation of the district.

These projects, he said, may include recreational programs for various sections of the district, the setting up of a public campground to supplement the Donner Park camps, the construction of a base-ball park and other developments.

Loehr said he would try to bring the matter to a vote as soon as legal steps are taken.

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — As of today, it looks like former Vice President Richard Nixon will be California's Republican candidate for governor next year, despite the fact no official announcements have been made, and despite the fact that individuals close to the Republican leader insist, as he does himself, that he has not, as yet made up his mind.

Events of the past week, including a statement by former President Eisenhower that he would support Nixon, urgings from Republican party leaders, congressmen and senators, all serve to indicate the pressure is on the former vice president to "save California" from the Brown administration. The picture was different a couple of weeks ago.

When talk of the governorship first started, immediately after Nixon's defeat for the presidency of the United States, the consensus was that he would be pressured into running for governor. Here was a strong Republican who could be used in California as the strong est contender available against Governor Edmund G. Brown.

But a good many whys and wherefores entered the picture. Nixon was also needed as party leader in the nation. There was, and is, the possibility he might use the California governorship, if elected, as a "stepping stone" to the presidency in 1964, thereby duplicating the campaign propaganda which helped defeat Senator William F. Knowland for the California governorship.

When everything had been added up, it was generally conceded Nixon wouldn't run, and that the GOP sponsored candidate would be Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco.

But things can change quicker in politics than weather on spring day. Nixon, with plenty of campaigns behind him in California, can present a stronger candidacy than any other Republican, except possibly former Governor Goodwin J. Knight, who also has been mentioned as a possible candidate. And how the Republicans want the governorship of California.

Although Christopher has tacitly been the choice of the party leaders, in the event Nixon doesn't run, the San Francisco mayor is more than willing to step down, possibly to run for the lieutenant governorship of the state.

With all the "urging", it is, therefore, more than likely Nixon will jump into the campaign about the middle of September, and say one way or another what he is going to do.

It's no secret that with Nixon as the GOP candidate, the Democratic vote in California would be solidified to a greater extent than with any other candidate possibilities. And the Republicans will need a lot of Democratic votes to elect the ex-vice president to the top seat in this state. With a 3-2 registration, they do not stand to get many if the vote is solidified.

Events of the past week no doubt will throw the candidacies of Assemblyman Joseph Shell and former Lieutenant Governor Harold J. Powers into some confusion, although they both have stated they will stay on the primary ticket even if the ex-vice president goes.

SMOKING IS CAUSE OF MANY SYMPTOMS SAYS HEALTH HEAD

"A variety of physical complaints have been found to be associated with the smoking habit, it was reported today in a recent publication of the American Medical Association," said Dr. Elbridge J. Best, Nevada County health officer.

The results of a study of 18,697 men and 43,068 women (more than twice the number of people in Nevada County) were reported in the August issues of Archives of Environmental Health, by E. Cuyler Hammond, Sc.D.

Summarizing the findings of the study Dr. Hammond said, "a great number of different complaints were found to be associated with smoking habits."

Included were coughing, hoarseness, shortness of breath, pain and/or discomfort in the chest, loss of appetite, pain in the stomach, pain or discomfort in the lower abdomen, diarrhea, loss of weight, easy fatigue, loss of sleep and several other complaints that include nausea and vomiting. The amount of cigarette smoking ranged from 1-9 cigarettes a day to more than 40 per day. The frequency of physical complaints increased with the amount of daily smoking.

"Most of the physical complaints considered here can vary in degree from slightly annoying to extremely unpleasant," Dr. Hammond commented. "Some of the complaints studied were symptomatic of the presence of a serious disease or a condition likely to develop into a serious disease. Thus, the study found, the association between smoking habits and certain physical complaints may be extremely important."

In conclusion Dr. Hammond said, "the research suggests that smoking produces coughing, shortness of breath, impairment of stamina, loss of appetite and certain other complaints. The study also suggests that these complaints sometimes have the effect of inducing individuals to smoke less, or even give up smoking."

Dr. Hammond was co-author of the famous Hammond-Horn report of 1957 which linked smoking with the higher death rate from lung cancer.

COLLEGE SKI MEET PLANNED AT SQUAW

University of Nevada, in conjunction with University of California, will host the 1961 National Collegiate Ski Championships at Squaw Valley.

It has been confirmed by Jake Lawlor, Nevada athletic director, that the NCAA title tournament will be held on March 22, 23 and 24 at the site of the 1960 Winter Olympic Games.

Willie Schaeffler, chairman of the NCAA rules committee, had recommended the location with the suggestion that Nevada and California universities co-sponsor it.

After conferring with Pete Newell, athletic director at the Berkeley campus, Lawlor said that the two schools will share in all events in connection with the nationals.

It is believed that Bill Briner of Tahoe City will serve as competition chairman, and that Bill Newsum of the Squaw Valley Improvement Company will be coordinator of the technical arrangements.

YOUTH AUTHORITY GAINS ON INMATES

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — The California youth authority reported that, for the first time since 1955, it is able to deliver wards to an institution within two weeks from the time they are committed. "This is a goal toward which the department has been working for many years," the CYA said, "but progress has sometimes been slow, principally because of the state's growing population and the difficulty of constructing new institutions in time to accommodate it. This is the first time since 1955 that the department has been able to accept wards for delivery within two weeks after commitment."

One of the aids in earlier delivery of wards after commitment was the decreasing of processing time in clinics to 28 days. The CYA said the waiting list for girls has been eliminated entirely. Washington produces about one-fourth of the nation's apple crop.

The direct causes are due to reckless driving and carelessness of drivers, and to the carelessness of pedestrians."

Probably sounds familiar. This time, though, the words weren't directed at Californians. The above quotation comes directly from the annual report of the traffic police of Japan, a agency responsible for traffic safety on Japan's highways.

"The distinct similarity of this message with those frequently voiced in California and throughout the nation points up rather dramatically a simple truth," commented California Highway Patrol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden.

"The driver is the only person who can bring about a significant reduction in traffic accidents—here, in Japan, or anywhere.

"Despite all that is done to build better highways and better vehicles, to broaden the scope of safety education, and to wield a more thorough, impartial type of law enforcement, the driver holds

Meets at Wyethia Clubhouse

Truckee.

Sunday School: 9:30 a. m.

Morning Services: 11 a. m.

Evening services will be held the third Wednesday of the month during July, August and September only.

Effective prayer will be a theme dealt with at Christian Science services Sunday in a lesson-sermon entitled "Substance."

Scriptural readings will include the account in Luke of the Master's parable about two men, one a Pharisee and the other a publican, who went up into the temple to pray.

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy this citation will be read (p. 2): "What are the motives of prayer? Do we pray to make ourselves better or to benefit those who hear us, to enlighten the infinite or to be heard of men? Are we benefited by praying? Yes, the desire which goes forth hungering after righteousness is blessed of our Father, and it does not return unto us void."

The Golden Text is from Hebrews (3): "We are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast unto the end."

DIVOT-DIGGERS

By BETTY KIELHOFFER

SUNDAY AT THE GOLF COURSE: Well, our first annual tournament at Shadow Valley was a fine success and loads of fun for everyone. Karl Kielhofer, who decided to play at the last minute, surprised us with the low gross score of 77 to run off with the first place trophy, while Jo Gardner from southern California (she's the mother of Squaw Valley's Sophie Baker) was the easy victor among the ladies with a low of 87. Her picture swing is a joy to behold. Norma Russell and Angie Besio were the low net winners and it looks as though these two will have to build special trophy rooms if they keep it up. They both have quite an array. Just about everyone received some kind of prize, all donated by the local merchants. These were handed out in the clubhouse amid the gaiety of the aftermath. Charlie Fink braved the task of calling out the winners over the strains of "Down by the Old Mill Stream," (in harmony?), while Orf DeLuca hustled about to see that everyone heard him. The barbecue, handled by Zeph Rose and Lauren Russell, left nothing to be desired, except for the very few who wandered over too late and missed their dinner. Most of the crowd adjourned to the Hilltop Lodge for dancing and more fun to top the evening off about midnight. Probably one of the nicest parts of the day was hearing all the comments on the beauty of the course. Many of these people played the course early in the year before the grass had filled in and they were all amazed at the thick carpet of green now covering the fairways. Even though it is a real challenge, most of them agreed that it shouldn't be changed because, and I quote Elsie Martin, "when you score well here, you really feel you have earned it." That covers it very well. Roy Waters brought his group up a couple of weeks ago and painted all the benches a very nice maroon color, which really adds to the scenery . . . pairings for the club championship were made up Monday and the first matches must be played by next Sunday . . . if you haven't been contacted, check at the clubhouse to get your pairing. This also applies to the juniors who are playing. Good luck.

DONNER DOINGS

By VIRGINIA O'BEAR

Isn't it amazing when you see the difference in your home after a busy summer with lots of visiting relatives and friends? You take the leaves out of your dining room table and try to cook for four people instead of 12 and 16. Everything looks kind of bare when you take out the extra cots, bunks and sleeping bags. It is nice to have company but at this time of the year it seems the best time residents can settle down and enjoy the rest of the summer until about October 15, I hope. There are reports of an early winter but I am hoping we have another Indian summer and a few more weeks of nice weather.

George Lyons spent a couple of days at Donner Lake this week away from his busy life in San Francisco. He is the West Bend Outboard Motor Salesman and took our Power Cat for a couple of spins around the lake. He gave Willie Curran a ride and so far everyone who has had a ride think they are fabulous. So do I and especially since they are guaranteed not to tip over and they are so safe for children. I will be getting around to taking our friends for rides now that things have quieted down a little at Donner during the week.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Widemann and children of Vallejo are here for a vacation in their new summer home. The children have one of those small inboards built for two and it looks so cute to see Kent and Susie out there on the lake putting along.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hageman of Palo Alto spent the long weekend at their summer home painting and getting it ready for winter. They plan to spend most of the and now some of us permanent winter here this year and the children will love that.

Bob Larsen, service engineer for the telephone company, is still checking the possibility of obtaining service for the people across the lake and at the west end. He would prefer someone responsible belonging to the Donner Lake Property Owners Association and could provide semi-telephone booth service at the rate of 75 cents a month with a guarantee of two local ten cent calls a day. The company would have a box check between five and seven months so it should average out with all of the weekenders coming up for the winter skiing. Any officer of the association may contact me for further information if interested. This particular service has to be in someone's home or on a porch available to the public.

In case anyone misunderstood the big week at Donner Lake Lodge, here's what they are doing. Anyone can go in for dinner and take a guest and just pay for one dinner. It is employee's week and Hal wants to thank everyone by having this two for one special to show his appreciation for your patronage this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony St. Claire entertained this week and had a wonderful time with their foster son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. James Andreasen of Seattle. They visited all points of interest taking in Virginia City and Reno as well as the Tahoe area and then as the week was ending they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Carter Comaford and daughter of Inglewood and by Dr. and Mrs. Don St. Claire and daughter, Valerie. Now that the St. Claires are alone again, they can be seen working in their beautiful yard and what an improvement with that rock work.

Don't forget the Swiss Wrestling at Donner Lake Lodge September 16 and 17. Also the luau being sponsored by the ladies auxiliary which is open to the public on September 21. Contact Martha Pankoke, Nancy Brodie, Josephine

REPORT ON INDIANS GIVEN BEFORE CLUB

TAHOE CITY — Harold Ambrosch, recent resident and business man of Tahoe City, and who has spent some 30 years among the Indians of North America, told Tahoe City Rotarians and guests at a recent luncheon meeting at Tahoe Inn, of some of his travels among the original inhabitants of the United States.

The Navajo of Arizona has the largest population and is faring well because of oil wells developed in about 1953. Oil wells not only provide work for the Indians but, the revenue goes into a fund to build schools, hospitals and good roads in the reservation and busses to transport the children to the modern schools, he said.

The Pueblo Indian of New Mexico, long christianized by Mexican Catholics, is doing well, Ambrosch said. Like many of the Navajo, men and women have been educated to take their places in the professional world but, regardless of their education, these people never fail to return for their annual tribal ceremonies, don the proper ancient costume and paint their faces for the occasion and, "believe it or not," Ambrosch continued, "I have seen rain fall following the rain dance."

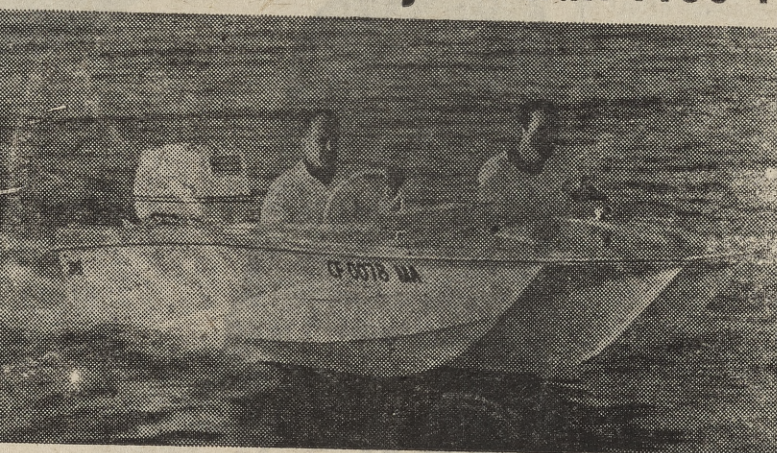

As the result of education and the finding of work in profession, in industry and in vegetable gardens, Indian art is being lost, according to Ambrosch.

Ned Long was program chairman and Gordon Moyer presided over the meeting attended by 25 members, 28 visiting Rotarians and four guests.

Vacationing? Carry a trash bag in your car and use it; use your ashtray, too.

Hall, Petie Brown or Virginia O'Beare for reservations. I know the men won't forget hunting season as it opens the 23rd. A lot of them are busy oiling their guns in preparation so I hope some of our local men get a deer this year, including my husband. Good hunting fellows.

PRELIMINARY PLAN FOR ZONING COUNTY IS NOW UNDER STUDY

During the past week copies of a preliminary draft of a subdivision ordinance as prepared by the Nevada County planning department were distributed to the various local health, sanitary, water and power interests in the Truckee-Donner area for study and comments.

William N. Roberts, Nevada County director of planning, stated: "the county has an important stake in subdivision development. Master plans for county development, zoning, taxation and assessment practices, transportation, and public utility and other local capital improvement programs are all affected in major degree by subdivision practices. The regulation of land subdivision and development has become a very important function of local government in order to insure sound county growth. Regulations for control of subdivision development are instruments of local government which require the highest degree of cooperation between the developer who wishes to subdivide and the county within which the subdivision is located."

The planning commission will review the proposed ordinance during the next few weeks and, after discussion and consideration of any comments of those interested, will revise the present draft and then hold a series of public meetings to explain and discuss the various provisions and their purposes before final approval. After which it will be sent to the board of supervisors for adoption.

Ralph Jamieson, of the Sacramento office of the state housing department appeared before the commission at their meeting and explained the new state building code, which effects all counties, and will be enforced by the state housing department in counties which have no building inspectors of their own.

EMERALD BAY ROUTE

around Emerald Bay. On this alignment a tunnel would carry the road under the major slide area, and snow sheds would cover the road for protection in other slides areas. This alternate would terminate at the same place north of Bliss Park as Alternate A. Distance would be 7.8 miles.

Costs High

Right of way and construction costs for Alternate A would total between $6,550,000 and $7,765,000 for the initial two lanes, or, between $11,200,000 and $13,200,000 for the ultimate four. The lower figures are for the embankment north approach to the bridge, and the higher are for the viaduct approach.

Alternate B total costs would be $9,345,000 for the initial two lanes, or, $18,145,000 for the ultimate four.

The ultimate four-laning of Alternate B would involve construction of a second tunnel parallel to and longer than the initial 1,300-foot tunnel. However, since two lanes would suffice for off-season traffic, no attempt would be made to keep the ultimate two south-bound lanes open during winter, nor would snow sheds be built on that upper set of lanes.

To Present Plans

During the meeting, staff officials from the district office will present the engineering and economic considerations involved in the project.

Hart urged that all interested individuals and groups attend the meeting, present their views, ask questions, and offer any pertinent information they may possess concerning the project.

Hart also emphasized that detailed personal questions, such as specific right of way requirements, cannot yet be answered. However, all questions will be answered to the limit of presently available data. After route adoption, he explained, detailed plans can then be developed that will provide this exact information.

Statements at the meeting may be given orally or filed as written documents, and all proceedings will be incorporated into a report that will be forwarded to the state highway engineer for study. He will then submit the report and his recommendation to the highway commission which, after further study, will move toward formal adoption of the route.
